

4th Annual
Innovative Enrichment Symposium
Sunday, October 10, 2010

Omni Hotel at CNN Center
100 CNN Center, Atlanta, GA 30303
Atlanta, Georgia

Continental Breakfast 8:30
Presentations 9:00-12:00

OPENING REMARKS- Jennifer Camacho, Massachusetts General Hospital

OLAW Perspective on Enrichment- Pat Brown, OLAW

USDA Update- Nicolette Petervary, USDA

Understanding individual differences in bio-behavioral organization of rhesus monkey infants: Better science and better management- John Capitano, UC Davis

Enhancing the welfare of laboratory rabbits, rodents and technicians through knowledge of social and communicative behavior- Thomas Donnelly, Tufts University

Break and (Buffet) Lunch Dialogue 12:00-1:30

- 1- Enrichment Program Management
- 2- Program Directors & IACUC
- 3- Scientists- Evidence Based EE
- 4- Rodents Only
- 6- Animal Welfare/Behavioral Management Stereotypes
- 7- Animal Training
- 8- Human/Animal
- 9- Innovative Enrichment

Presentations 1:30- 4:00

Recommendations for successful pair housing introduction of adult rhesus macaque in the laboratory setting- Kate Baker, Tulane National Primate Research Center

The How to's of Non-Human Primate Pair Housing, Melissa Trulove, Yerkes

What is Enriching about “Mother Love” in Rodents- Jeffery Alberts, Indiana University

CLOSING REMARKS